Contents

Editorial comment ................................................................. 3
Foreword ................................................................................. 4
A word on the cover design  Karen Argus .................................. 4
Book club: A view from Mrs Nguyen’s grade four classroom .......... 5
Cynthia H. Brock, Fenice B. Boyd and David Caldwell

Reflections of inquiry-based learning through an integrated curriculum approach: twenty years on  Lea Gill ................................................................. 9

Lightning writing revisited  Robyn English ................................ 11
Supporting literacy from a leader’s perspective  Mary Moore .......... 12
Don’t just do something, stand still  Cheryl Lacey .............................. 13
How to incorporate ICTs in my classroom with one computer  Randal Symons ............... 15
100 children went to school … 20 years ago!  Susan Hill ......................... 16

A journey of enacting new literacies in an early childhood education classroom  Tracey Sanderson ............................................. 17
Early literacy before and after the advent of electronic devices Elaine Blake .......... 21
The fusion of story and technology  Kylie Lipscombe .......................... 22
‘One click’ and … new conversations and new learning practices in schools 23
Christine Edwards-Groves

What counts as literacy?  Grant Webb ........................................ 24
What is the most significant change in literacy education in the last twenty years?  ... 25
Trevor Cairney

Being literate: Then and now  Noella M. Mackenzie ............................ 26
The more things change …  Brian Cambourne ................................ 27
Grammar’s journey – Teacherly reflections from Linda-Dianne Willis & Beryl Exley ... 29
Engaging writers in the Early Years: Grammar games to support writing ............ 33
Phillip Poulton

Interactive writing: A powerful teaching strategy  Noella M. Mackenzie .............. 36
The writer’s notebook  Louise Dempsey ........................................... 39
Non-romantic poetry  Lynne Barry ............................................... 41
Practically Primary – its success with a perspective on EAL/D learners 42
Alex Kangas

ALEA and the golden period of education  Lorraine Wilson .......................... 43
Literacy education: A political journey  Wendy Bean ......................... 44
Reflecting on literacy assessment  Heather Fehring ............................... 45
Effective teaching … has it really changed?  Some thoughts from Glenda Cain ........... 46
Lyla – Year 1 student  Sonya Fox .................................................. 47
Library Lover’s Day  Jannine McGarry ........................................... 48
Reading comprehension strategy instruction with a focus on the early years .......... 49
Christine Topfer

Using instructional read alouds to enhance vocabulary development ........................................ 50
Laura Ambrose, Anisa Goforth and Ginger Collins

Something old is new again  Caroline Hollis ................................... 53
Teaching reading – on purpose  Adrienne Willing ............................... 56
A developing story: The literacy demands of the curriculum  Marion Meiers .................. 57
Literacy teaching on the move  Karen Argus, Debbie Brousseau and Coral Swan .......... 58
It’s about time …  Lesley Friend .................................................. 60
Literacy resources: Reviews and applications ........................................ 62
Ten Tidbit Takings ................................................................. 64

Send your articles, pictures or ideas to
Dr Louise Phillips and Dr Linda Willis,
Co-editors, Practical Literacy,
School of Education,
Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences
University of Queensland
Brisbane Qld 4072
email: lwillis@uq.edu.au

Front cover image
Karen Argus