Australian Journal of Language and Literacy
Volume 34 Number 3 2011

Editorial ............................................................................................................... 244
About the Authors ............................................................................................. 246

Samoan students documenting their out-of-school literacies:
An insider view of conflicting values............................................................ 247
John Dickie

Middle years students’ collaborative talk about The Red Tree:
‘A book that really works your mind’ ............................................................ 260
Sylvia Pantaleo

The assessment of reading comprehension cognitive strategies:
Practices and perceptions of Western Australian teachers ....................... 279
Grace Oakley

Teaching literate language in a storytelling intervention......................... 294
Suzanne Dawkins and Marnie O’Neill

Graphic image-making skills for literacy development............................ 308
Christine Bottrell

From drawing to writing:
What happens when you shift teaching priorities
in the first six months of school? ................................................................. 322
Noella Mackenzie

Reviews ................................................................................................................ 341

Notes for Authors............................................................................................... 350