Contents

Editorial 5
Marion Meiers

Engaging and Authentic Technology Use for Literacy Learning in the Middle Years 7
Jann Carroll

Online Discussion Forums in the Classroom: Can the Principles of Social Media Benefit Literacy and Enhance Engagement with Learning? 19
Jill Margerison

PRACTICAL STRATEGIES (insert)

Storytelling as Pedagogy ii
Louise Phillips

The Raft, The River And The Rainbow: Image-inspired Storytelling v
Lizzie Chase and Deb Abela

Mosaics of Storytelling: New visions from Old Stories viii
Jo Henwood

Word STUDY – An Orthographic Metalanguage xi
Patrick Donnelly

Between Two Worlds: Harnessing Opinion to Write Objectively Using the 3D Reflective Writing Scaffold xv
Kerri-Jane Burke

The Media, Celebrity Misbehaviour and Nurturing Affiliation xviii
Lindsay Williams

A Practical Approach to Developing the General Capabilities in Middle-Years English xxi
Linda-Dianne Willis and Karrena Menzie

Picture Books and the Concept of War: Connecting Children to their World 29
Kathleen Lillis

Towards Literary Growth and Community Participation: Lessons Learned from a Shared Book Experience in One Northern Ontario Community 35
Tara-Lynn Scheffel and David Booth

Is U a Word or Do You Spell it with a Z? English Spelling in Australian Schools – Are We Getting it Write? 41
Louise Zedda-Sampson