Contents

Editorial 5
Robyn Henderson

Making meaning in mathematics problem-solving using the Reciprocal Teaching approach 7
Kylie Meyer

Scaffolding understanding of tables and graphs 15
Lorna Quinnell

Connecting literacy learning outside of school to the Australian Curriculum in the middle years 22
Glenn Auld and Nicola F. Johnson

‘I used to read one page in two minutes and now I am reading ten’:
Using popular film subtitles to enhance literacy outcomes 28
Faye Parkhill and Ronnie Davey

Levelling the playing field: Engaging disadvantaged students through game-based pedagogy 34
David Elliott

PRACTICAL STRATEGIES
‘Once there was a …’: Reclaiming storytelling in the middle years (insert) 1
Jane Kirkby, Julie Faulkner and Julie Perrin

Making sense of mixed messages: Literacy within the Australian Curriculum 41
Weijia Lu and Russell Cross

Learning from the text talk experiences of Years 5 and 6 students discussing contemporary picture books 51
Sue Wilson

Western Australian adolescents’ reasons for infrequent engagement in recreational book reading 60
Margaret K. Merga

Off the Bookshelf 67
Reviews by Dimity Motley and Alice James